Chris lives in Riverlea with his parents, two sisters and two brothers. He is happy because he likes to visit at Granny Ruby, who lives in Coronationville. It is close to Riverlea. Chris loves to read, it doesn't matter what he finds, and he reads it! One day his granny says to him that they must meet in town, there is something which she wants to show him. Chris went to town by bus, and arrived at the place where they were to meet, very happy!

He stood for a long time, thinking that granny is no longer coming. But here is granny! She kisses him and then they walked until they got to a shop that sold books and entered. The shop is full of books, and granny looks at her excited grandchild and smiles. She says Chris can choose two. Chris was so happy! He gave granny the books he chose so that she can also read.

Granny Ruby put on her reading glasses, and slowly paged through the books one by one. Granny pays for the books, whereas Chris wastes no time, he just starts to read!

After two weeks, it is a very special day for Chris, because it is granny Ruby's birthday! He sits down thinking what he can give granny as a present? In the end he decides to write her a letter thanking her and telling her that he loves her.

At the party all the people were together: his uncles, his aunts, his male and female cousins, they were all there. They were all happy, sang for granny, and indulged themselves in the cakes and drinks. Chris takes out his letter and takes it to granny. He says that she must please read it.

He insists that granny must read it, but granny doesn't want to read it, saying that she will read it when she puts on her reading glasses. Chris' mother takes him aside and tells him to leave granny alone. She told him that his granny cannot read.

Chris was very shocked because his granny couldn't read, and then he read the letter to her. In the letter he wrote to her that he loves his granny. Granny Ruby kisses Chris and says I love you too my grandchild!
