

FACULTY	: Education
DEPARTMENT	: Education and Curriculum Studies
CAMPUS	: APK
MODULE	: GEOGRAPHY PGCE: METHODOLOGY & PRACTICUM MPFGEY1
SEMESTER	: Year
EXAM	: November Exam 2019

ASSESSOR(S)	: NADYA BHAGWAN
MODERATOR	: MUOFHE THENGA (WITS)
DURATION	: 2 HOURS	MARKS	: 100

NUMBER OF PAGES: 4

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Answer ALL THREE QUESTIONS.
 2. Number your answers clearly.
-

QUESTION 1: Answer True or False

1. A purpose of the National Curriculum Statement Grades R-12 is to provide employers with a profile of learner competencies.
A. True
B. False
2. A purpose of the National Curriculum Statement Grades R-12 is to produce learners that become competent employees after school:
A. True
B. False
3. Geography is a subject that combines topics related to physical and human processes over both space and time.
A. True
B. False
4. Literacy, numeracy, oracy and graphicacy are all examples of transferable skills.
A. False
B. True
5. The total teaching time allocated for geography is nine weeks for each term (1-4).
A. True
B. B. false
6. The teaching time allocated for geography in CAPS excludes time needed for revision and fieldwork.
A. True
B. False
7. Topographic maps and orthophotos are only introduced as part of the geography curriculum in Grade 10.
A. False
B. True
8. The study of climatic conditions over the FET band moves from the global in Grade 10 to the local in Grade 12.
A. True
B. False

9. Assessment of learning is results driven
 - A. True
 - B. False
10. The teacher has the right to determine whether to use the marks for informal, daily assessment tasks.
 - A. True
 - B. False
11. Continuous assessment makes up 50% of the final matric mark for geography.
 - A. True
 - B. False
12. The weighting of cognitive levels for formal, geography assessments changes in Grade 10, 11 and 12.
 - A. True
 - B. False
13. Labelling diagrams is one of the competencies required by geography learners.
 - A. True
 - B. False
14. Gradient is Horizontal Equivalent divided by Vertical Height.
 - A. True
 - B. False
15. GIS as a content area that is introduced in Grade 10.
 - A. True
 - B. False

QUESTION 2

- 2.1. Define the word 'curriculum' as it relates to teaching and learning. (4)
- 2.2. There are four ways to interpret what a curriculum is. List these and describe the main feature of each of these interpretations. (8)
- 2.3. Based on the above, how would you classify CAPS? Provide two reasons. (4)
- 2.4. Define "ethno-geography." (2)
- 2.5. Does CAPS for the FET phase of Geography integrate principles of ethno-geography? Provide two reasons for your answer. (2)
- 2.6. Define the word 'constructive alignment.' (2)
- 2.7. What are learners likely to do if there is no constructive alignment? (4)
- 2.8. Provide two advantages of the "testing effect." (4)

[30]QUESTION 3

Design a Geography Mapwork lesson plan for any grade of your choice. Make sure to clearly state all elements of a good lesson plan. Indicate your PCK for Geography and justify why you have chosen to teach the content the way you have, using the resources you have used and assessing the way you have.

[40]

TOTAL: 100