INSTRUCTIONS:

Answer BOTH the questions.

Question 1

Theorist, Rudolf Dreikur believed, "A child needs encouragement like a plant needs water". Dreikur believed it was possible to understand children's behavior or misbehavior by recognizing the four main goals that motivate children's behavior.

Do you agree with Dreikur's philosophy of democracy? Is it still relevant for the 21st century classroom? Discuss the four main goals according to Dreikur that motivates children's behavioral actions in the classroom. Cite practical examples from the classroom.

Question 2

Lerato, a Grade 10 learner, is a Rastafarian and has dreadlocks. She was repeatedly sent out of the class and forced to remain in the staff room. As a result, she missed most of her classes. She alleged that the school violated her rights to dignity, freedom of religion and education. In addition, she alleged that her frequent exclusions from class amounted to a violation of her right not to be discriminated against on grounds of her religion.

On grounds of the above scenario, discuss Equality (Section 9 of the Bill of Rights, Constitution of Republic of South Africa) which stipulates that everyone is equal before the law and has a right to equal protection and benefit of the law. Also, refer to at least one court case in this regard.
