ANSWER ALL THE QUESTIONS BELOW

Please pay careful attention to the following instructions:

This is not a formal sit-down written exam. It takes the form of an assignment that you must complete on time and submit for examination. Your answer must be typed as a formal assignment. It should be between five and seven pages in length in single spacing, excluding a cover page, table of contents and reference list. Use Arial, 12pt for your assignment.

Your exam is due by

Please submit your assignment through Turnitin on Blackboard under the heading "Assignment for supplementary exam".

We cannot accept any late submissions because the papers have to go to the external examiner and be submitted to Faculty within a short space of time.

Use the last page of this exam paper as the cover for your exam submission. Remember to include a declaration of plagiarism.

For this examination you are expected to show evidence of reading. You should have at least six (6) current academic sources to support your answers.

You need to study the case study of The White House (available on Blackboard) to enable you to answer the following questions:

1. Critically analyse to what extent is "The White House" case study a citizen- versus a consumer-driven community. (25)

2. Critically analyse the extent to which the community uses the five main assets in the community. (25)
3. Identify and describe the different types of social assets which exist in the community of “The White House”. Motivate your answer by providing examples from the case study. (25)
4. Evaluate to what extent is “The White House” an inclusive community with a strong link between the Top of the Pyramid (ToP) and the Bottom of the Pyramid (BoP). (25)

Please use the page below as the front page to your assignment.
