I, (your student number) .....
declare that this exam assignment is my own original work. Where secondary material has been used (either from a printed source or from the internet), this has been carefully acknowledged and referenced in accordance with departmental requirements. I understand what plagiarism is and am aware of the Department's policy in this regard.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SUBMISSION OF YOUR EXAM PAPER

- Exam papers must be submitted by midnight on the due date indicated above. We will, however, accept submissions up until 5am the following day (10 Nov) without penalty.
- Make every effort to type your exam answer in MS Word and upload the paper to Blackboard. You will find a link on the menu (on the left of your screen) called "EXAM" which has a Turnitin submission link.
- If you are unable to access Blackboard, please email the exam answer to your lecturer using the email address provided above.
- If you do not have a device on which to type your assignment, we will accept a neatly handwritten exam paper. Please use the attached guidelines: "How to scan and submit handwritten assignments". Please email such submissions to the email address provided above. As this is an essay exam assessment we do not have a minimum or maximum word count requirement, as long as you have addressed the essay question as per the marking grid on next page and as in your study guide.

EXAM QUESTIONS

- Discuss any 4 (four) of the following participatory community practice theories separately (20 marks each):
    - Appreciative Inquiry (AI)
    - Assets Based Community Development (ABCD)
    - Sustainable Livelihoods Approach (SLA)
    - Hope and Timmel's Participatory Community Approach
    - African Indigenous Knowledge System (AIKS)
    - Paulo Freire's Pedagogy of the Oppressed

[80]
  - Motivate which of the above that you discussed may be more suitable for contemporary South Africa.
