QUESTION 1

EXAM QUESTION (ONE COMPULSORY QUESTION)

A literature review provides an overview of previous research on your research topic that critically evaluates, classifies, and compares what has already been published on your research topic. Write an outline of your literature review broken down into three key themes (use these as headings) that are relevant to your main research question(s). Your outline should be written as a critical reflection on existing literature about your topic, summarising key ideas, and should contain references. Connections between the themes should also be evident.
