Langelihle and Lerato reach a verbal agreement to the effect that Langelihle will bring his Sony stereo to Lerato's home at 8pm on 21 October 2017 for this purpose, and Lerato hands Langelihle R2 500 in cash.

Pamela Parsons, a friend of Langelihle's, arrives at Langelihle's home at 9am on the morning of 21 October 2017, for breakfast. While Pamela is there, she shows interest in the Sony stereo system and offers to purchase the stereo from Langelihle. 11.1 Should any dispute arise between the Parties in regard to the interpretation of, the effect of, the Parties' respective rights or obligations under a breach of, the termination of or any matter arising out of the termination of this Agreement, such dispute shall be decided by arbitration in the manner set out in this clause 11.

11.3 The arbitration shall be held at Johannesburg.

11.4 The arbitration shall be held in accordance with the formal rules of AFSA or, if AFSA is not in existence at the time, in accordance with the formalities and procedures settled by the arbitrator, which shall be of an informal and summary nature, that is, it shall not be necessary to observe the usual formalities or procedure or the strict rules of evidence, and the arbitration shall be otherwise subject to the provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1965.

11.7                This clause 11 is severable from the rest of this Agreement and shall therefore remain in effect even if this Agreement is terminated.

11.8                This clause 11 shall not preclude any Party from obtaining interim relief on an urgent basis from a court of competent jurisdiction pending the decision of the arbitrator.

12.    Whole Agreement

12.1                This Agreement (together with any documents referred to in this Agreement) supersedes any previous agreement between the Parties in relation to the matters dealt with in this Agreement and represents the entire agreement between the Parties in relation to the matters dealt with in this Agreement.

- 15.3 Any notice or other communication to be given to any of the Parties in terms of this Agreement shall be valid and effective only if it is given in writing, provided always that any notice given by telefax shall be regarded for this purpose as having been given in writing.
- 15.4 A notice to any Party which is sent by registered post in a correctly addressed envelope to the address specified for such Party in clause 15.1 shall be deemed to have been received (unless the contrary is proved) within 10 Business Days from the date it was posted, or which is delivered to the Party by hand at that address shall be deemed to have been received on the day of delivery, provided always that such envelope was delivered to a responsible person during ordinary business hours.
- 15.5 Each notice by telefax to a Party at the telefax number specified for it in clause 15.1 shall be deemed to have been received (unless the contrary is proved) within 24 hours of transmission if it is transmitted during normal business hours of the receiving Party or within 24 hours of the beginning of the next business day at the destination after it is transmitted, if it is transmitted outside those business hours.
- 15.6 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this clause 15, a written notice or other communication actually received by any Party (and for which written receipt has been obtained) shall be adequate written notice or communication to it notwithstanding that the notice was not sent to or delivered at its chosen address.
- 15.7 Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, this clause 15 shall not operate so as to invalidate the giving of or the receipt of any written notice which is actually received by the addressee other than by a method referred to in this clause 15.

- 15.8 Any Party may by written notice to the other Parties change its address or telefax number for the purposes of clause 15.1 to any other address (other than a post office box number) provided that such change shall become effective on the fifth Business Day after the receipt of such notice.
