

FACULTY	: Humanities
DEPARTMENT	: Anthropology and Development Studies
CAMPUS	: APK
MODULE	: ATL3B21/ ATL3BB3
SEMESTER	: Second 2020
EXAM	: Supplemental Nov 2020

DATE	:	SESSION	: Take-home
ASSESSOR(S)	Dr T Kaur and : Dr Melinda Barnard
MODERATOR	:
DURATION	: 48 HOURS	MARKS	: 100

NUMBER OF PAGES: 2 PAGES

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Answer Section A and B
2. Number your answers clearly
3. Answer section A and section B in separate files
4. This is a take-home essay exam for which you will have two days to submit.
5. Your submission is due no later than XXX on the XXXX.
6. The paper must be submitted through Turn-It-In by the deadline.
7. Do NOT simply copy your work from previous assignments or use class discussions, and hand it in as your exam paper.

8. You must make use of assigned articles pertinent to the question you chose.
9. Please note, you may not plagiarize either from your own previous work or other's work. If you do, it will be treated as cheating under exam conditions and appropriate disciplinary action will be taken.

Section A

POLITICAL ANTHROPOLOGY

Write an essay (2000 words) on any one of the following topics:

1. Is tribalism an African reality or Western imaginary? Discuss.
2. "The impact of state power is felt differently at various levels of the national community" (Aretxaga). Discuss.
3. How have Foucault's theories influenced our understandings of the state?

Total: 50 marks

Section B

ANTHROPOLOGY OF SPORTS

Write an essay (2000 words) on any one of the following topics:

1. Recognition of the category "intersex" has given rise to a number of debates about fairness in sports competitions. Using an example of a prominent athlete, write an essay on history of sex-testing in sports and the debates that the category intersex has instigated.
2. Drawing on David Goldblatt's (2019) chapter, The Living and the Dead: Afro Football Fever, write an essay on the strange and extraordinary ways in which football enthusiasts do (express and/or act out) their passion for the sport.
3. Drawing on Clifford Geertz's study of gambling as a cultural text, write a short essay on: "Football gambling" (see attached short article for reference: Mndebele, M. 2020 Ignoring the coronavirus to play football, New Frame)
4. In The Anti-Politics Machine, James Ferguson refers to 'fallacy of equivocation' to expose the conflation of meanings given to the term "development". Using this analytical method, identify the conflation (and the problematic) in the following: "Gender equality and changes in norms and attitudes towards it can be promoted in sport contexts, where sport-based initiatives and programmes have the potential to equip women and girls with knowledge and skills that allow them to progress in society.” – Sustainable Development Goal (SDG 5: Gender Equality) United Nations Office on Sports for Development and Peace (2015)

Your essay should position the analysis of the above quote in the broader critique, opportunities and limitations, of Sports for Development and Peace (SDP).

Total: 50 marks